Your holiday begins with your flight to Harbin, capital of Heilongjiang (via transit cities). Upon arrival, see Asia's largest Orthodox Church, the Saint Sophia Cathedral, built in 1907 by the Russian army. Stop at Stalin Park and the Flood Prevention Memorial, built in remembrance of Harbin's flood in 1957. End the day with a visit to the Middle East Railway Bridge and Harbin's commercial district of Zhongyang Street. Here, European architecture, such as the baroque and rococo style architecture is still prevalent.

(Taste homemade pure Russian ice cream).

D2: HARBIN-QIQIHAR(4H) (Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner)

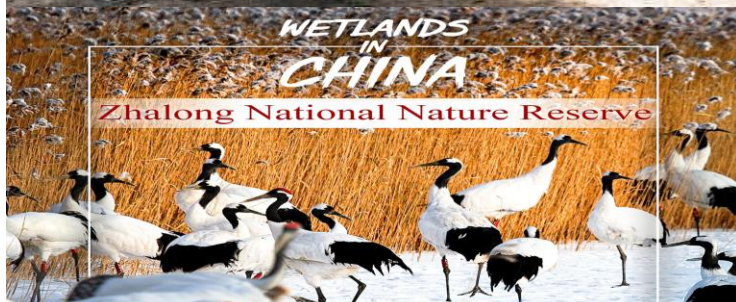

Qiqihar is the 2nd largest city in the Heilongjiang province. Along the way, you can see the Daqing Oil Field Oil Recovery Machine. Visit Zhalong Nature Reserve, home to the world's largest reed wetlands and also the hometown of red-crowned cranes. Enjoy a crane-flying performance. Visit Reed Sea and Animal and Plant Herbarium.

D3: QIQIHAR(5.5H)-HULUNBEIER GRASSLAND (Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner)

Proceed to the world-famous Hulunbeier Grassland, reputed to be the 'Jade of the Northland' and is one of the most famous grasslands in the world. Upon arrival, enjoy a Mongolian welcome ceremony - Taste wine and the herdsmen offer Hada to experience and feel the nomads' high respect for tourists! Tonight, experience the steppe yurt as a Mongolian. You can follow the team to worship Aobao, which is a traditional Mongolian custom and one of the national intangible cultural heritages. If the weather is clear at night, you can enjoy the beautiful starry sky.
